

---

Registered Users can:

- Create Projects for their university, edit their own Projects, and delete them if they have not been linked by anyone else.
- View Projects from other users, including from other universities, and link them to their own projects if they are not set to private.
- Create keywords and use existing keywords.
- Create Events, edit their own Events, and delete them if they are not used by any other user.
- View Events from other users, including from other universities, and link them to their Project if they are not set to private.
- Create Actors, edit their own Actors, and delete them if they are not used by another user.
- View Actors from other users, including from other universities, and link them to their Event or other Actors if they are not set to private.
- Create datasets about Equipment and Software, as well as Equipment Types, edit their own Equipment and Software datasets and delete them if they are not used by another user.
- View Equipment and Software, as well as Equipment Types, from other users, including from other universities, and link them to their own Event.
- Create Physical Object Datasets, edit their own, and delete them if they are not used by another user.
- View Physical Objects from other users, including from other universities, and link them to their own Event.
- Create Information Storage Medium Datasets, edit their own, and delete them if they are not used by another user.
- View Information Storage Mediums from other users, including from other universities, and link them to their own event.
- Add and edit Digital Objects to/at their own Events, and delete them if they are not used by another user.
- The following things can also be viewed and searched for reference, e.g. Organisational Units, Project Types, Project Categories, Event Types, Roles, Information Storage Medium Types, etc.

Registered Users aren't allowed to:

- Link and view Digital Objects from other users.